Eligibility

You are eligible for the disability benefits described in this SPD if:

- You are a regular, temporary or per diem associate of Montefiore Mount Vernon Hospital, Montefiore New Rochelle Hospital or Schaffer Extended Care Center and work at least 50% of a full-time schedule

and
- Your worker classification under the Montefiore Management Position Evaluation System is either Executive or Physician (Group 03S, 03M, 03N, 04S, 04M, 04N).

When Coverage Begins

The following table shows when coverage begins.

For:	This is when coverage begins if you are eligible and are a:
	Regular full-time or part-time associate	Temporary full-time or part-time associate
Paid Sick Leave	The day after you complete 30 days of employment
New York State Disability Benefits	The day after you complete four weeks of employment
Supplementary Sick Pay	The day after you complete 90 days of employment
Long-term Disability	The first day of the month coincident with or after your date of employment	The first day of the month coincident with or after you complete three months of employment

Cost

Montefiore pays the full cost of Paid Sick Leave and Supplementary Sick Pay on your behalf.

You make contributions for New York State Disability Benefits – ½% of your pay up to a maximum contribution of $1.20 biweekly – Montefiore pays the rest.

You pay the full cost of Long-term Disability coverage with after-tax dollars. After-tax dollars are deducted each payroll period after all applicable taxes have been determined and withheld. Because you make these contributions with after-tax dollars, any benefits you may receive from the LTD Plan will be free of federal income tax. Premiums are waived during any period you receive LTD benefits.

Enrollment

Short-term Disability and Basic Long-term Disability coverage is automatic. There is nothing you need to do to enroll. You pay the full cost of Basic LTD coverage as well as any buy-up disability coverage you elect.

Short-term Disability (STD) Benefits Plan

Under Short-term Disability you are considered disabled if, as the result of a non-occupational injury or sickness (including pregnancy), you are unable to perform your regular duties or any other duties that Montefiore may offer you at your regular wages.

Short-term Disability benefits are provided by:

- Paid Sick Leave
- New York State Disability
and
- Supplementary Sick Pay.

Paid Sick Leave

Once you become eligible, you accrue one day of paid sick leave for each calendar month you work (up to a maximum of 12 days each year). Unused days carry over into the following year. You can accrue up to a maximum of 120 days.

If it is determined that you are disabled, short-term disability benefits start on your sixth consecutive workday of absence. You'll receive 100% of your base salary for each day you are absent up to the total number of paid sick days you have accrued.

Paid Sick Leave Accruals

After you receive sick pay for five consecutive workdays and it is determined that you are disabled, Montefiore receives the New York State Disability benefits (50% of your annual base earnings up to a maximum benefit of $170 each week for up to 26 weeks in a 52 week period) paid on your behalf from its insurance carrier. If you return to work, the value of those payments is converted to hours and added to your sick leave accrual up to the amount of your sick leave accrued prior to being disabled. If you don't return to work, you will not receive sick leave accruals for those hours.

New York State Disability

After you have exhausted your Paid Sick Leave, as long as it is determined that you continue to be disabled, you will be paid the New York State Disability benefit directly by the insurance carrier (50% of your annual base earnings up to a maximum benefit of $170 each week) for the balance of the 26 week maximum in a 52 week period.

Supplementary Sick Pay

If it is determined that you are disabled, Supplementary Sick Pay begins after you have used all of your accrued Paid Sick Leave – but in no event before the sixth consecutive workday of your absence. Montefiore provides Supplementary Sick Pay which, in combination with New York State Disability benefits, continues two-thirds of your base salary up to a maximum benefit of $2,500 a week.

In no case will Supplementary Sick Pay be paid until the Montefiore receives notification of payment from its insurance carrier of New York State Disability benefits. That is why it's important that you, your supervisor and your physician complete and submit the appropriate forms to the HR-Benefits Office as promptly as possible.

Duration of Payments

Once they begin, Short-term Disability benefits continue for as long as you remain disabled – but not beyond 26 weeks from the date you first become disabled.

Long-term Disability (LTD) Plan

This Plan helps replace part of your income if you become disabled as a result of sickness, accidental injury or pregnancy, for more than 180 days. To qualify for benefits, you must be under the regular care of a physician (other than yourself) and be:

- Unable to perform the majority of the substantial and material duties of your own occupation (the occupation you perform regularly for Montefiore Medical Center before your disability begins). For a physician or dentist, your own occupation means your specialty or sub-specialty. You are considered practicing in the general specialty category if your sub-specialty is not recognized by the American Board of Medical Specialties.

- Unable to earn more than 80% of your indexed predisability earnings while working in any occupation or your own occupation on a modified basis..

The loss of a professional or occupational license or certification does not, in itself, determine disability.

Predisability Earnings

Monthly predisability earnings are determined as follows:

- If you have been with Montefiore for at least one calendar year – wages paid in the calendar year immediately preceding the date you become disabled and reported as Medicare earnings on your W-2 divided by 12. Wages include your contributions to the Personal Voluntary Annuity 403(b) Plan, Flexible Spending Accounts and before-tax contributions you make to the Montefiore Benefits Program (excluding any housing and/or car allowance). It also includes any private practice earnings or government grant amounts you received during the same calendar year.
- If you have been with Montefiore for less than one calendar year – wages paid during your completed months of employment divided by the number of months worked. Wages include any private practice earnings or government grant amounts you received during those months.

Indexed Predisability Earnings

During your first year of disability, your indexed predisability earnings and your predisability earnings are the same. On each March 1, following the date you become disabled, your indexed predisability earnings will be increased by the average rate of increase in the Consumer Price Index (CPI) during the preceding calendar year up to an annual maximum of 10%. There will never be a decrease in your indexed predisability earnings, even if there is a drop in the CPI. When you return to work under a Work Incentive Period, indexed predisability earnings are used to determine the reduction, if any, in LTD benefits due to income from other sources; they are not used to provide increases in LTD benefit payments.

Elimination Period

The elimination period is the 180 continuous days you must be partially or totally disabled before you become eligible to receive benefits.

If you recover and return to work:

- During the elimination period and you become disabled again due to the same or a related cause, your elimination period will pick up at the point where it was left off when you recovered. You have 360 days to satisfy the 180-day elimination period. The days you are not disabled will not count toward your elimination period.
- For six months or less after you have started receiving LTD benefits and become disabled again from the same or related cause, you will not be required to complete a new elimination period.

Plan Benefits

If after the elimination period you are unable to work in any capacity, your monthly benefit equals:

- 60% of your predisability earnings less income from other sources
Up to a maximum benefit of:
 - $6,000 a month if you have only Basic LTD coverage
 - $15,000 a month if you have Basic and Buy-Up LTD coverage.
- The minimum LTD Plan benefit is $100 a month.

You can purchase Buy-up LTD coverage to increase your maximum monthly benefit if your annual base salary exceeds $120,000. Buy-up LTD coverage is in addition to any Basic LTD benefits you receive.

Income from Other Sources

Your monthly LTD benefit will be reduced by any income you receive from the following sources:

- Any sick pay or other salary continuation (but not vacation pay) paid to you by Montefiore,
- Any amount you, your spouse or your children receive from Social Security or a similar act or plan due to your disability or your retirement.
- Any amount you receive due to your disability from:
 - Workers' Compensation or similar law, including amounts for partial or total disability, whether permanent or temporary
 - Any group insurance coverage other than group credit insurance or group mortgage disability insurance
 - or
 - Any state unemployment compensation disability benefit law or state disability income benefit law
- Any disability or retirement benefits you elect to receive from a pension plan funded by Montefiore
- Renewal commissions received from the policyholder
- Any amount you receive by compromise, settlement or other method as a result of a claim for any of the above.

Income from other sources does not include:

- Amounts you receive:
 - For reimbursement of hospital, medical or surgical expenses
 - As an award or settlement for medical benefits, rehabilitation benefits, income benefits for fatal or scheduled injuries involving loss or loss of use of specific body members
 - From a tax-sheltered annuity to which you contributed (e.g., the Personal Voluntary Annuity 403(b) Plan), non-qualified deferred compensation plan, Individual Retirement Account (IRA), Keogh (HR-10) Plan or a retirement plan under a Professional Service Corporation with respect to principals or shareholders
 - or
 - Which represent reasonable attorney's fees incurred in connection with the claim for income from other sources
- Benefits from any individual disability insurance policy
- Military or Veterans Administration disability or retirement payments
- Cost of living increases from any income from other sources which become effective while you are disabled and eligible to receive payments (this exception does not apply to any increases in earnings if you work while disabled)
- Social Security or pension plan benefits being received before your disability begins.

Because your LTD benefits are coordinated with income from other sources, you must notify the Claims Administrator promptly if you receive or expect to receive any awards or settlements. You must identify the nature of the other income benefits, the amounts received, the periods to which the other income benefits apply and the duration of the other income benefits if paid in installments.

Work Incentive Period

If you are able to work while you are disabled, you may still be eligible to receive a disability benefit. In this case, your monthly benefit for the 12 month work incentive period will equal the lesser of:

- 100% of your indexed predisability earnings, less income from other sources, less current earnings
- or
- Your primary monthly benefit, less income from other sources.

After the work incentive period, your monthly benefit equals your primary monthly benefit less income from other sources, multiplied by your income loss percentage. Your income loss percentage is your indexed predisability earnings less any current earnings divided by your indexed predisability earnings.

Rehabilitation Services and Benefits

Rehabilitation Services

While disabled, you may qualify to participate in a rehabilitation plan. The rehabilitation staff will work with you, your physician(s), Montefiore and its insurance carrier to create an individual rehabilitation plan to assist you in returning to work.

Rehabilitation assistance may include:

- Coordination of medical services
- Vocational and employment assessment
- Purchasing adaptive equipment
- Business/financial planning
- Retraining for a new occupation
- Educational expenses.

If you are not disabled, but have a condition that could prevent you from performing the substantial and material duties of your own occupation, preventive rehabilitation services may be offered.

Reasonable Accommodation Benefit

If you are able to work while you are disabled and if you make changes in your work environment or the way your job is performed that would allow you to return to work and perform the essential functions of your job, you may be eligible to receive a Reasonable Accommodation Benefit. After written authorization, the LTD Plan will reimburse you the cost of tools, equipment, furniture or other changes to the worksite or environment (not to exceed $2,000) that would allow you to return to work.

403(b) Contribution Benefits

If you are a participant in the Personal Voluntary Tax Deferred Annuity (PVA) 403(b) Plan and/or Tax Deferred Annuity (TDA) 403(b) Plan and are on long-term disability – your contributions as well as any Montefiore contributions stop. To help offset this reduction in retirement benefits, after you receive 12-months of LTD benefits, the LTD Plan will contribute up to 5% of your predisability covered monthly earnings to an individual annuity established on your behalf. The contribution will not exceed the combined PVA and TDA contributions you and Montefiore were making at the time you become disabled. The LTD Plan will make a contribution each month you are disabled for the Duration of LTD Benefits or the date you surrender the annuity for its cash value. To help you pay any income taxes due on supplemental retirement contributions, the Plan will pay you a tax benefit equal to 10% of the supplemental retirement contribution amount.

Survivor Benefits

If you die while receiving LTD benefits, your eligible survivor will receive a benefit equal to 66.6667% of your last monthly LTD benefit for 12 months following your death.

Eligible survivors are:

- Your spouse or domestic partner
- Your unmarried dependent children
- Your parents
- Any person providing the care and support of any of the above
- Your estate, if you have no surviving family members, as indicated above.

In case of your death, your eligible survivors should notify the HR-Benefits Office immediately.

Social Security Benefits

In case of disability, you may be eligible for primary and/or family Social Security disability benefits. If you become totally disabled, you are required to apply for Social Security benefits as soon as possible. If the Social Security Administration denies your claim, you will be required to follow the Social Security Administration's claims review process. If your claim is denied a second time, and the insurance company agrees to pay the costs, you must request a hearing before an Administrative Law Judge of the Office of Hearing and Appeals.

If you do not apply for Social Security disability benefits, the Insurance Company reserves the right to reduce your LTD benefits using an estimate of what you would have received from Social Security had you applied.

Exclusions

The LTD Plan does not cover disabilities caused or contributed to by:

- Intentionally self-inflicted injury
- War or act of war whether declared or not, any armed conflict whether civil or international, and any substantial armed conflict between organized forces of a military nature
- Participation in a felony
- A pre-existing condition unless you have been continuously insured under the group policy for at least 12 months
- A new or continuing disability that begins after your benefit payment period has ended, but you have not returned to active work.

Pre-Existing Conditions

A pre-existing condition is a sickness, injury or pregnancy, including all related conditions and complications, or for which you received medical treatment, consultation, care or services including diagnostic measures, or took prescribed drugs or medicines in the 12 months just prior to your coverage effective date.

If you become disabled during your first 12 months of LTD coverage as a result of a pre-existing condition – no benefits will be paid for that disability. However, the 12-month period will be reduced by any time you were covered under another employer's LTD Plan, if no more than 60 consecutive days elapsed between the dates your prior LTD coverage ended and coverage under this LTD Plan began.

This applies to:

- Your initial Basic and Buy-up (if you are eligible and elect this additional) monthly benefit under the LTD plan
- and*
- Any Buy-up coverage you elect during a future enrollment.

Pre-existing condition exclusions also apply to benefit increases due to:

- Policy amendments
- Changes in earnings of 25% or more.

Duration of LTD Benefits

How long LTD benefits continue depends on your age when you become disabled.

If your disability begins before age 62, benefits continue until the later of the date you reach age 67 or 60 months after your benefit payment period begins.

If you become disabled at or after age 62, LTD benefits as shown in the following table.

Age Disability Occurs	Duration of Benefits
62	60 months
63	48 months
64	42 months
65	36 months
66	30 months
67	24 months
68	18 months
69 and older	12 months

Your disability benefits will end before the maximum duration period if you:

- Recover
- Are no longer under the regular and appropriate care of a physician
- Fail to provide any required proof of disability
- Fail to submit to a required medical examination
- Fail to report income from other sources, or any other required earnings information
- Fail to pursue Social Security disability benefits or Workers' Compensation benefits
- Die, except for any survivor benefits that may be payable.

Treatment of Mental Health Conditions

If your disability is the result of a mental, emotional or behavioral disorder, LTD benefits are paid for up to a lifetime maximum of 24 months – unless you are hospitalized when the 24-month period ends. If you are in the hospital when benefits would ordinarily end, benefits will continue during your confinement and up to 60 days following your release from the hospital. If you are hospitalized again during the 60-day period following hospitalization for at least ten consecutive days, benefits will continue for the duration of the second hospital confinement and the 60 day period following your release from the hospital.

Other Benefits during Disability

While you are receiving Short-term Disability benefits, any Medical, Vision, Dental, Flexible Spending Accounts, Life, Dependent Life, Group Legal and LTD coverage you have elected continues – as long as your salary is sufficient to cover any required contributions, or you arrange to prepay your contributions for these coverages.

AD&D Insurance and the Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account stop when Short-term Disability benefits stop.

The following table shows how your coverages may be continued after Short-term Disability benefits stop.

Claiming Benefits

Short-term Disability

If you are absent from work, you should notify your supervisor immediately. He or she will arrange with the HR-Benefits Office to send you the appropriate form for claiming benefits for Supplementary Sick Pay as well as New York State Disability benefits if your absence is expected to continue for more than seven calendar days. The form must be completed by you, your supervisor and your doctor and submitted to the HR-Benefits Office within 10 days of the date your disability begins.

Supplementary Sick Pay and New York State Disability benefits begin on the eighth consecutive calendar day (sixth consecutive workday) of absence, if it is determined that you are disabled, and continue for up to 26 weeks.

You should be aware that if you terminate employment for any reason other than disability, and you become disabled during the four weeks after your termination, you may be eligible for New York State Disability benefits.

Long-term Disability

If you expect to be totally disabled for more than 180 days, you or a family member should contact the HR-Benefits Office to begin the application process for LTD benefits. LTD benefits cannot begin until the forms and necessary proof of disability have been submitted to and approved by the insurance company. You will need documentation showing that:

- You became disabled while covered under the Plan from a condition which the Plan does not exclude and
- Your disability is expected to continue for more than 180 days and you have been under the regular care of a physician.

You will also be asked to submit documentation of any other income payments that you are or may become entitled to receive.

When you file a claim, you agree to permit the insurance company to consult with your physician and to review any related medical records. The insurance company may also require that you be examined by a physician of their choice, at their expense.

Claims for LTD benefits must be submitted as soon as possible, but no later than 120 days after the end of the 180-day elimination period. Otherwise, no benefits will be paid.

Principal is the claims review fiduciary for the Long-term Disability Plan. The claims review fiduciary has the discretionary authority to interpret the coverages and the insurance policy and to determine eligibility for benefits. Decisions by the claims review fiduciary shall be complete, final and binding on all parties.

Termination of Coverage

Paid Sick Leave and Supplementary Sick Pay stop on the day you leave Montefiore for any reason. New York State Disability benefits may continue.

LTD Plan coverage stops on the date:

- You stop making contributions
- The group policy is terminated
- You are no longer actively at work for any reason unless you are:
 - Receiving full salary (including sick pay)
 - Satisfying the elimination period before LTD benefits begin
 - On a leave of absence of 30 days or less
 - On an approved FMLA leave and pay the required monthly contribution on a timely basis
- You are no longer eligible for the Plan
- You become a full-time member of the armed forces of any country
- You go on a temporary layoff or work stoppage
- Your employment with Montefiore terminates for any reason.

If the group policy is terminated while you are receiving LTD Plan payments, your benefits will not be affected in any way.

LTD insurance can be converted to individual coverage.

Continuation of Coverage

If you continue to pay the premiums, your LTD insurance may continue under the following circumstances:

- If you stop working due to a sabbatical, for up to one year
- For an unpaid personal or educational leave of absence, through the end of the month following the date the leave begins.

- For a maternity leave, to the end of the month following 4 months from the date the leave begins.
- For an unpaid military leave of absence, to the end of the month following 6 months from the date the leave begins.
- For layoff, up to 1 month.

Claim Denial and Appeal

Generally, the insurance company will make a decision about an LTD claim within 45 days after receipt of your claim. In the event of special circumstances, the insurance company may extend the period for a determination for two additional 30-day periods. In each case, the insurance company will give you a written notice stating the reasons for the delay and the expected date of the decision. The notice of the extension will specifically explain the standards on which entitlement to a benefit is based, the unresolved issues that prevent a decision on the claim, and the additional information needed to resolve those issues (you will be given 45 days to provide any specified information required of you).

If your claim for benefits is denied, in whole or in part, you will receive a written explanation, which will include:

- The specific reasons for the denial of your claim
 - The specific references in the Plan document that support those reasons
 - The information you must provide to verify your claim and the reasons why that information is necessary
 - The procedure available for further review of your claim
 - Any internal rule, guideline, protocol or other similar criterion that was relied on in denying your claim or a statement that a copy of such internal rule, guideline, protocol or other similar criterion will be provided free of charge to you on request
- and*
- If the determination is based on a medical judgment, an explanation of the scientific or clinical judgment for the determination or a statement that the explanation will be provided free of charge to you on request.

Your Right to Appeal

You have the right to appeal an LTD claim that is denied in whole or in part. Your appeal must be in writing and can be made by you or anyone you select to represent you.

In preparing your appeal, you may include any written comments and relevant information, even if such materials were not submitted or considered in the initial benefit determination. The Plan shall permit you, upon request and free of charge, reasonable access to any information pertinent to your claim. The Plan will also identify any health care professional consulted in the claim.

LTD appeals should go to the following address within 180 days after you receive the denial:

Principal Life Insurance Company
Attn: Group Life & Disability Claims Department
Des Moines, IA 50392-0002
(800) 245-1522

The insurance company will conduct a full and fair review of your appeal and will notify you of the decision within 45 days. The insurance company may, due to special circumstances, extend the period for determination for up to an additional 45 days. In that case, the insurance company will give you a written notice stating the reasons for the delay and the expected date of the decision. In reviewing your appeal, the insurance company, if appropriate, will consult a health care professional. Such professional will not be the same individual or a subordinate of any individual consulted in the initial claim determination. The persons reviewing your claim on appeal on behalf of the insurance company will not be those or persons subordinate to those who made the initial determination. The initial determination will not be afforded any deference.

If your appeal is denied, in whole or in part, the decision will be in writing, and will include:

- the specific reasons and the Plan provisions on which the decision was based
 - A statement informing you of your right to reasonable access to all relevant documents
 - An explanation of what to do to have the decision reviewed if your appeal is denied, including a statement of your right to bring a civil action under the terms of the Plan or under section 502(a) of ERISA
 - Any internal rule, guideline, protocol or other similar criterion that was relied on in denying your claim or a statement that a copy of such internal rule, guideline, protocol or other similar criterion will be provided free of charge to you on request
 - If the determination is based on medical necessity or experimental treatment or other limit, an explanation of the scientific or clinical judgment for the determination or a statement that the explanation will be provided free of charge to you on request
- and*
- The following statement: “You and your plan may have other voluntary alternative dispute resolution options, such as mediation. One way to find out what might be available is to contact your local U.S. Department of Labor Office and your State insurance regulatory agency.”

Throughout the claims review procedure, you may have a personal representative act on your behalf.

Any failure on your part to comply with the request for information by the Claims Administrator may result in a delay or a denial of your claim.

You cannot file suit in federal court until you have exhausted these appeals procedures. If the Plan fails to follow the claims review procedures at any point during the process, however, such as by failing to respond to your benefit claim or appeal, you will be deemed to have exhausted the remedies available under the Plan and you will be entitled to bring a civil action.

ERISA provides that all Plan participants, with appropriate notice, shall be entitled to:

- Examine, without charge, at the Plan Administrator's office, all Plan documents, including trust agreements, insurance contracts and copies of all related documents filed with the U.S. Department of Labor, such as detailed annual reports.
- Obtain copies of all Plan documents and other Plan information upon written request to the Plan Administrator, who may make a reasonable charge for the copies.
- Receive a summary of each Plan's annual financial report. Montefiore is required by law to furnish each participant with a copy of the Summary Annual Report.

In addition to creating rights for Plan participants, ERISA imposes duties upon the people who are responsible for the operation of employee benefit plans. The people who operate your Plans, called "fiduciaries" of the Plans, have a duty to do so prudently and in the interest of you and other Plan participants and beneficiaries. Although these rights are in no way a guarantee or contract of employment, no one may fire you or otherwise discriminate against you in any way to prevent you from obtaining a benefit from a Plan or exercising your rights under ERISA.

If a claim for a benefit is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you must receive a written explanation of the reason for the denial. You have the right to have the appropriate fiduciary review and reconsider your claim.

Under ERISA, there are steps you can take to enforce your rights. For instance, if you request materials from the appropriate fiduciary and do not receive them within 30 days, you may file suit in a federal court. In such a case, the court may require the appropriate fiduciary to provide the materials and pay you up to $110 a day until you receive the materials, unless the materials were not sent because of reasons beyond the control of the appropriate fiduciary.

If you have a claim for benefits that is denied or ignored, in whole or in part, you may file suit in a state or federal court. In addition, if you disagree with the Plan's decision or lack thereof concerning a medical child support order or the status of a qualified domestic relations order, you may file suit in federal court.

If it should happen that Plan fiduciaries misuse a plan's money, or, if you are discriminated against for asserting your rights, you may seek assistance from the U.S. Department of Labor, or you may file suit in a federal court. The court will decide who pays court costs and legal fees.

If you are successful, the court may order the person you have sued to pay these costs and fees. If you lose, the court may order you to pay these costs and fees if for example it finds your claim is frivolous.

If you have any questions about the LTD Plan, you should contact the appropriate fiduciary. If you have any questions about this statement or about your rights under ERISA, or if you need assistance in obtaining documents from the Plan Administrator, you should contact the nearest office of EBSA, U.S. Department of Labor listed in your telephone directory, or the Division of Technical Assistance and Inquiries, Employee Benefits Security Administration, U.S. Department of Labor, 200 Constitution Avenue N.W., Washington, D.C. 20210.
